CANTON, Oct. 18 .- Yesterday set another new mark in the history of the campaign. Delegations arrived us early as 4:30 a. m., and Major McKinley made an address before breakfast. He made another soon after he had finished that meal, and two more with only sufficient intermission to move one crowd from the intermission to move one crowd from the lawn and another on there. There was a little let-up in the arrivals, during which Major McKinley took a walk for exercise around the block and then resumed speaking to delegations which came faster gand of greater proportions than ever before.

The crowds had grown by this time far beyond the proportion of the lawn. They filled the abutting streets and the adjoining lawns, and the speaking was done from the little reviewing stand at the front of the lawn. Over 40,000 people were here yesterday. A delegation filling forty-six cars and numbering nearly three thousand voters came from the interior of West Virginia. State Senator Stuart F. Reed, of Clarksburg, made the introductory speech, and was followed by W. T. Ged, and was

"I do not know how many delegations I have already addressed to-day, but they have been coming since 8 o'clock this morning, and still others are waiting to be presented. This is the year when people all want to vote. They are ready now to vote. They know on which side they intend to vote, and they know the party ticket they intend to vote. They have had some experience in the last three years and a half, and that experience has been most costly, Not a single industry in the country but what has suffered. The government has suffered in its revenues and the people in their wages and the preople (Great applause.) I have heard from your spokesman to-day that West Virginia's electoral vote this year will be for the Republican ticket. This assurance gratifies my heart. It gratifies the heart of every lover of his country."

ALL THAT IS NEEDED

To Restore Confidence in McKinley's Election.

In his weekly financial review, Henry Clews says:

All that is now wanted is the election of McKinley, to put this country again on a phenomenally prosperous basis, as was the case in the years 1879-80 through the resumption of specie payments. the resumption of specie payments. There was also a similar period in the year 4582, the last year of President Harrison's administration, when the highest point of prosperity was reached in the country's history. I do not hesitate to predict that that same notch will be passed in the year 1897 if the St. Louis convention's platform is adopted overwhelmingly by the votes of the people on November 3.

on November 3.

On the other hand, if the Chicago platform should be adopted, then these elemtns of prosperity will prove to be absolutely reversed, and we must wade through a period of four years with such uncertainties as will dishearten employers and employes alike. through a period of four years with suc-uncertainties as will dishearten employ crs and employes alike; and if such misfortune should overtake this countr-instead of the prosperity indicated, from which the labor classe would derive th most benefit, the condition of trad would become so deployable from on end of this indion to be other that the

RUCKER'S CAMPAIGN.

MEDLEY, W. Va., Oct. 15.-Hon. E.

He is Making Effective Speeches in Grant County. Special Correspondence

P. Rucker made two excellent speeches to the voters of this county at Greenland and Medley yesterday. The Greenland speech at 2 p. m. was unfortunately to Republicans only, there being but three or four Democrats in this precinct of one hundred and thirty six voters, and not one of them was present. Had they been there, it would have been impossible for them to withstand the irresistible force of his logic. The Medley speech was at 7 p. m., and was also full of logic, the speaker making but small attempt at flowery oratory, but sticking close to facts. Fortunately there were several Democrats present, some of whom are described this morning as having "fought their shadows all the way home." Mr. Rucker spoke at Gormania, Wednesday flight, and speaks to-day at Peiersburg, at 2 p. m., and at Maysville at 7 p. m. He is making a good impression as he passes through the county, (Grant), and his efforts will add to the majority the county will roll up for sound money and protection. An example of the demoralization of the Democrats here may be given in the fact that at their county convention a few days ago at Hayard, they nominated a candidate for superintendent of schools. There will be no vacancy in that office for two years. P. Rucker made two excellent speeches
